

Community Coalition for Social Justice Annual Report: October 1, 2017-September 30, 2018

Monthly e-newsletters.

Spoke at meetings of Morgantown City Council in October in support of revisions to Morgantown Human Rights ordinance to include sexual orientation, gender identity, and veteran status.

Table at Native American Studies Program's event on the evening of October 10th.

Received the 2017 Human Rights Day Award for organizations from the City of Morgantown Human Rights Commission, December 2017, "in recognition of contributions toward helping to make Morgantown a more inclusive community and to promote and protect the human rights of all."

12th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr., Day Celebration at Metropolitan Theatre on January 15, 2018, with theme of "Growing Up Martin"; with financial support from the City of Morgantown and Rachel Wood; collected donations for the Scotts Run Backpack Feeding Program; co-sponsored with Main Street Morgantown

Planning beginning for 13th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr., Day Celebration at Metropolitan Theatre on January 21, 2019, with theme of children in the Civil Rights Movement; with financial support from the City of Morgantown.

Had a representative on the WVU Division of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion committee to choose social justice films to be shown at WVU.

Distributed voter registration information rack cards in cooperation with the Morgantown-Monongalia League of Women Voters for the May 2018 primary.

Purchased 18 copies of Hidden Figures for Monongalia County elementary schools – 9 copies of Hidden Figures: Read Aloud version for the younger students (K-2) and 9 copies of Hidden Figures: Young Readers Edition for older students (grades 3-5) with a bookplate in each to recognize our donation.

Participated in Scotts Run Street Fair, September 15, 2018

Maintain a web site at www.ccsjwv.org and Facebook page at Community Coalition for Social Justice at Morgantown, WV

September 23, 2018, annual meeting program entitled "Celestial Voices: Celebrating Operatic Divas of West Virginia" with Janis-Rozena Peri as soloist, Marguerite Bostonia as pianist, and Barb Howe as narrator; in cooperation with WVU Community Music Program

